Conditions of Sale

I.—The highest bidder to be the purchaser; if any dispute arise, the lot to be put up again, or, in case of need, the dispute to be decided by a shew of hands, unless left to the decision of the Selling Broker.

II.—If any Broker, who may purchase at this sale, shall not declare his Principal in writing by four o'clock on the day succeeding the sale, at latest, or shall have bought for persons under age, he shall be considered as the Principal, and shall himself be obliged to pay for the Goods so bought by him: and if any Purchaser at this sale, or Principal, who may be declared afterwards, are not satisfactorily known to the Selling Broker, he is to be at liberty to call immediately on the purchasing Broker, or bidder at the sale for a deposit of £20 per cent., or for such deposits as are expressed in the Catalogue, and in default thereof, the Selling Broker shall be entitled to cancel the contract immediately by written notice, or to re-sell the Goods at his discretion, the loss, if any, to be made good by the defaulter: and all Brokers who shall buy any Goods for persons residing in the country or abroad, shall, at the time they declare their principals, produce their authority for the same (if required) together with an undertaking from a resident known Agent in London to make good the contract. The biddings of parties who have been defaulters at previous sales, or who may not be satisfactorily known to the Selling Broker may be rejected at his discretion.

III.—Every person, whether Broker, Agent, or Principal, who shall be declared the highest bidder for any lot or lots of Goods at this Sale, shall make such deposits in money as are expressed in the Catalogue, immediately after any lot is knocked down, if required, (in default of which the lot to be put up again) which said deposits will be allowed in part payment, and the remainder of the purchase-money shall be made good on delivery of the orders, on or before the prompt-day, as printed in the Catalogue. Cash, on delivery of warrants or orders without interest (and paid for at the Dock, Wharf or Warehouse returns). In case of non-delivery, owing to damage or destruction from fire, the deposit to be returned.

IV.—The Goods to be taken with all faults and errors of description whatever as they now lie in the warehouses mentioned in the Catalogue, where they will be considered at the risk of the Sellers (only to the extent of the contract value) until the prompt-day, or delivery of warrants or orders of delivery, or the day of payment, whichever may first happen, but in the event of non-delivery by loss from fire, the contract for this portion to be void.

V.—No objection as to quality or condition will be entertained when Goods are on shew, or if not on shew, unless objection be made within seven days from the day of sale: and in the event of any dispute arising, the same to be referred to arbitration in the manner provided for by the rules of the General Produce Brokers' Association of London.

VI.—Lot money 1s per lot, whether bought at or after the sale. Brokerage as customary. Rent chargeable to the buyers after the Prompt-day.

VII.—In the event of the non-fulfilment of the above conditions, the Goods may be re-sold immediately, either by Public Sale or Private Contract, at the option of the Selling Broker, and all losses, charges, interest of money, or any other damage whatever that may accrue, shall be made good by the purchaser at this present sale, and for which he will be liable to be sued.

EASTWOOD & HOLT.
